Do diplomas have full names?

I would suggest more of an American standard to have a single middle name and abbreviating that one. In other parts of the world, those with a civil registry for example, your full name is used on diplomas anyhow, as that's your name and your name's what goes on a diploma ;)

Does Reddit put middle name on diploma?

So it seems weird to have on the diploma (or anywhere else for that matter!). Do what you like and are comfortable with. If you choose to hang it on the wall, then it should really reflect the name you want to display. If you don't hang it on the wall then it's just for you and no one is going to see it.

What is the name of high school diploma?

GENERAL EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT (GED) The GED is a battery of tests, based on courses and/or guided self-study, that when passed result in the award of a certificate that is recognized in the United States as the legal equivalent of a high school diploma.

How should your name appear on a certificate?

Generally you can choose how you want your name displayed on a certificate. However, it is customary to have at least your first name and family name spelled in full. Any other names can be substituted with just the first letter.
