What Does God Say About Prayer in the Bible?

What Does the Bible Say About Prayer? Prayer is not a mysterious practice reserved only for clergy and the religiously devout. Prayer is simply communicating with God—listening and talking to him. Believers can pray from the heart, freely, spontaneously, and in their own words. If prayer is a difficult area for you, learn these basic principles of prayer and how to apply them in your life.

Do Christians have the authority to command God?

As you can see, in verse 11, it seems God is giving man the power to command Him. This is a very unfortunately oversight by translators. The original manuscripts did not have punctuation in them, so periods and question marks were not part of the original. In verse 11, the verse ends with a period when in fact, it should have been question mark.
