Does flip summon count as a summon?

1 Answer. A flip summon does not count as a normal summon. For this effect to activate you would have to summon it from your hand in face up attack position (a normal summon as stated).

Can you flip summon a special summoned monster?

With the new ruling, you can then immediately flip it face up due to it being a special summon. Just because it's a Special Summon doesn't make it any more privileged than anything else. It was still summoned this turn, so its battle position cannot be changed.

Can you tribute summon face down?

Yes, you can. A Tribute Summon follows the same position rules as a Normal Summon, so a monster you Tribute Summon is either face-up attack or Tribute Set into face-down defense.
