What did God say about praying?

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God." ... "Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working."

What Does God Say About Prayer in the Bible?

What Does the Bible Say About Prayer? Prayer is not a mysterious practice reserved only for clergy and the religiously devout. Prayer is simply communicating with God—listening and talking to him. Believers can pray from the heart, freely, spontaneously, and in their own words. If prayer is a difficult area for you, learn these basic principles of prayer and how to apply them in your life.

What Does the Bible Say About Praying?

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way.

What does the Bible say about the power of prayer?

God is not bound by time. C. S. Lewis says you can think of time as a line on a page; God is the page. We are bound by the space-time continuum, as scientists say. So we experience the world as this kind of linear sort of thing, with past and present and future, and this moment is the only moment that there is.

RELATED QUESTIONS

What is the purpose of prayer?

We can use prayer as a way of opening our hearts to God, not as a being living in an extra-dimensional heaven, but as the wellspring of creative energy within us and the universe. By quieting our minds, we can open ourselves to experience this divine ground directly.

Why is prayer as a relationship with God important?

Prayer Changes Us When we spend time with God, He is working to change our heart to be more like His. The more time we spend with Him, the more we are like Him. Our habits and lifestyles change. We no longer live a self-centered life, but one that is focused on others with a pure and sincere heart.

Can prayer change the will of God?

"I the Lord do not change." (Malachi 3:6) The idea of praying to change God's will is presumptuous. ... Jesus set the example in Gethsemane when He prayed for God's will to be done, not His own. Perhaps prayer should be used not to change God's will but to discover his will, then conform our will to His.
