What do you say when a girl says hi?

You could respond with a “Hello”, “Hey”, “What's up?”, or “How's life?” are the normal beginnings of normal conversations. “How's life?” is to probably get all serious or to make her laugh and think of you as a joker, in a good way. First of all, start with a normal conversation like you would if you're a boy.

What does it mean when a girl says she's down for whatever?

If you are setting up a date and say "what do you want to do" and she says "I'm down with anything" it probably just means she wants to spend time with you doing something together. If in a bedroom context - probably very little limits (but be careful there are always limits).

What to say if someone says whatever?

Originally Answered: How do I respond when someone says whatever? You don't need to respond when somebody says, "whatever". In fact, in this scenario, "silence" is the best solution. I'm presuming here, that you're referring to non-polite comments & if so, you can simply choose to ignore &/or walk away.

What does it mean when a girl stares at you a lot?

When a girl stares at you, it means she's checking you out. She's paying attention to all of you. She's looking at the way you walk; she likes the way you take care of yourself, she admires the way you pull yourself together. When a woman stares at you, it means she appreciates you.

How do you tell a woman you want her?

Stop trying to "do it right" and just express exactly how you feel and what you want without holding back. As mentioned in the opening paragraph, this is often the best way to tell a girl you like her as she'll immediately appreciate your courage and honesty (which will only make the woman more attracted to you).
