Why are salons closed on Tuesdays?

In traditional Hindu belief system cutting of nails and hair on Tuesdays is considered to be a bad sign. Many people believe that is not auspicious. ... If people are not visiting the barber shop on Tuesday, it also makes sense for them to close it on Tuesdays and take their weekly off.

Why are some businesses closed on Mondays?

As answered below, many restaurants close on Mondays because it is typically a slow night for business. ... Having different restaurants close different days/nights (Monday and Tuesday, for example) means that there are still choices for people every night of the week. In my particular situation, I am closed on Sundays.

Should I tip my barber if he owns the shop?

Tipping the Owner Most owners agree that while they don't expect tips, they always appreciate them. "If the salon owner is cutting or coloring your hair, it is customary to tip them 15 to 20%, just as you would any other stylist—they are still providing a service even if they own the business," Abramite notes.
