Does God Answer All Your Prayers?

This is the heart of what prayer is all about. It is not just about asking for things; it is about seeking God's face and enjoying 'sweet communion with him'. This is the context of David's request. He cried out to God for help in the face of his enemies (vv.13–14). God heard and answered his prayers with a positive response, 'Yes'.

Why does God only answer some people's prayers?

Originally Answered: Why does God answer only some people's prayers? It's the random nature of chance. If enough people ask for enough things enough times, some of the things for which prayers are said will actually happen.

Why isn't God answering my prayers even though I live for Him?

When we pray, God answers our prayers in the way that is best for us. He loves us. This means He wants our good, and He knows that our ultimate good is to be united with Him. We may not understand how His answers accomplish this, just as He taught Job, but that is why He is God and we are not. All we need to do is trust Him.
